Absent, Excused — Hilderbran; Jones, D.; Wilson.

The invocation was offered by Scott Rainey, pastor, Spring Branch Church of the Nazarene, Houston, as follows:

Our Father in heaven, creator of the heavens and the earth, you alone are God over all the kingdoms of the world. You are the King of Kings, the Lord of Lords. We are your created. We are your servants. We are your people.

It is our desire today that your kingdom would come upon this earth and that it would come quickly. It is our desire that we would know and do your will today. Impress upon us, dear Lord, knowledge and wisdom of your ways and courage to obey you in all things.

Provide for us, Heavenly Father, our needs to survive today. But I ask that you do not give us so much that we lose sight of our daily need for you. Give us eyes that see the needs of those around us, and may we give a cup of cold water to those in distress.

Forgive us, dear Lord, for the sins we have committed against you and our brothers and sisters. We promise, with your help, to not walk those paths again. Help us, Lord, to forgive others in the same measure that you forgive us.

Help us, Father, to be a holy people, set apart for your purpose. Make us pure, clean, filled with integrity, and above reproach.

For this is your day. We belong to you. Have your way in us. It is through your one and only son, Jesus Christ, that we pray. Amen.
